Celebrating the 75th Anniversary of an American Classic: Remy Bumppo Presents The Skin Of Our Teeth by Thornton Wilder

In a world full disasters and unfortunate circumstances, how do we survive and how do we find hope, humanity, and laughter? To kick off Remy Bumppo Theatre Company's 2017/2018 Season and to celebrate the 75th Anniversary of The Skin Of Our Teeth, join us on a journey full of environmental catastrophes, refugee crises, and even world wars in Thornton Wilder's epic tragicomedy. Press Opening is Tuesday, October 10, 2017 at 7:00 pm at the Greenhouse Theater Center. The show runs from October 4 through November 12, 2017.

American suburbanites George and Maggie Antrobus, their talkative maid Sabina, and their children Gladys and Cain narrowly survive one end-of-the-world disaster after another in this three-act play. Exploring the world that was, is and might be, are Core Ensemble Members Peter A. Davis and Linda Gillum, alongside guest artists Charin Alvarez, Leea Ayers, Kareem Bandealy, Diego Colón, Matt Farabee, Art Fox, Kristen Magee, Michael McKeogh, Kelly O'Sullivan, Annie Prichard, Jerome Beck and Alice Wu.

Director of The Skin Of Our Teeth, Krissy Vanderwarker, explains her excitement about this particular production: "The Skin of Our Teeth is an artful and spectacular reminder of the cyclical nature of the human experience - one that both reassures us that we'll survive and reprimands us for injuring each other and our planet over and over. Our production will investigate whether or not we learn from our history and ask the question what might break the cycle - for better or worse."

The Skin Of Our Teeth will be performed October 4 through November 12, 2017 at the Greenhouse Theater Center at 2257 N. Lincoln Ave in Chicago. Season subscriptions and single tickets are on sale now at www.RemyBumppo.org or by calling the Greenhouse at 773.404.7336.

Remy Bumppo's 2017/2018 Season Sponsors are Geoffrey A. Anderson, Nancy and Gene DeSombre, and Brenda and James Grusecki.
